

ATA has worked with the Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA), a membership association acting as a catalyst for the responsible development of the Asia Pacific travel and tourism industry, since 2005 to promote cooperation between the two travel trade associations. PATA and ATA enjoy reciprocal membership affiliation and are committed to exploring avenues of cooperation in the areas of climate change and industry expansion.