

All-China Federation of Industry Commerce, an organization comprising entrepreneurs and pan-tourism businesses from mainland China, Hong Kong and Macau, and ATA engaged in an alliance to increase travel to Africa from China in 2006. Since then, members from each organization have participated in and presented at annual congresses.