

PARTNER NEWS: ATA and the African Travel and Tourism Association (Atta) (UK) marketing as Advancing Tourism to Africa, are pleased to announce that the two organizations have exchanged reciprocal memberships. This move is intended to set the foundation for ATA and Atta to work together to develop an extensive partnership which will provide added value for the membership of the two associations who seek to promote pan African travel and tourism.