

DORIS WOOTEN, Africa Tour-Rific (USA); ATA International Board of Directors
Doris Wooten became a travel consultant after she retired from a varied career as a US Federal Government Executive, licensed social worker, and training officer. She now works as a home-based travel consultant, planning and conducting group tours to global destinations. Since joining ATA sixteen years ago, she has served the organization in a number of capacities, including Chair of the Constitution Committee, New York Chapter President, and member of the Board of Directors. She currently serves as the First Vice President of the Board. Doris is a graduate of Morgan State University, Howard University-School of Social Work, and the Federal Executive Institute and the Senior Managers in Government Program. A New York City resident, she also serves on the boards of Harlem YMCA and Heritage, Health and Housing, Inc. Doris is a member of the Caribbean Travel Organization (CTO), Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA), and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority-NY Alumnae chapter.
