

HON.FATOU MAS JOBE NJIE Ministry of Tourism and Culture, The Gambia; President of Africa Travel Association

In May, she became President of the Africa Travel Association. She has received numerous awards including Standard Chartered Bank's Heroine Award (2002), the Business Woman of the Year Award in The Gambia (2001), and the Enterprising Woman of the Year Award in The Gambia (2000). She has an MBA from the Institute for Financial and Management Studies at University of Wolverhampton, a diploma in Business Administration and an advanced diploma in Marketing from London Executive College.