There are many activities available in Mozambique; Scuba dive, snorkelling, deep-sea fishing, Fly Fishing, Sunset Cruises, sailing, Dolphin Tours, Island Trip.

Our country is blessed with a rugged coastline-all just waiting for you to enjoy.

In the capital city of Maputo formerly Lourenco Marques, you are never far from the coast and visitors to the city can enjoy the refreshing sea breeze at the many restaurants serving locally caught seafood. Along the marginal is the fish market, where you will find fresh fish for the barbecue without all the effort of catching it. There are 3, 4 and 5 star hotels available in Maputo as well as basic Guest houses and motels.

Only a day trip away are the beaches of Macaneta and Island of Inhaca, a popular spot for diving and snorkelling.

Travellers to the south will enjoy the splendid beaches of Ponta do Ouro. This area is one of the best locations for scuba diving in the world and its waters are alive with many species of marine life including dolphins. Manta ray and the occasional shark for the more adventurous. The shoals of tropical fish fill the coral reefs with an ever-changing spectrum of colour.

To the North of Maputo, in the province of Gaza, are the famous beaches of Bilene and Xai-Xai. Their well equipped self catering resorts and catered accommodation offer you a choice of water sports, fishing and relaxation in the luxurious setting that will entice you to stay longer and return time and time again.

Further on up the Coast, around the city of Inhambane, are Tofo and many other secluded beaches, some of which are accessible only by four wheel drive vehicle. Gorongosa Park is on the way up North where you will be able to see wildlife. Travelers to Vilanculos will be tempted to linger a while at the self-contained luxury resorts of the Bazaruto Archipelago. Many of these resorts can arrange boat hire for those who enjoy a spot of deep-sea fishing.

Out of range of most travellers by road are unexplored to the North of Beira, Quelimane and Nampula. on the way you will find the historic town of Angache, which bears the influences of the Arab and Swahili peoples who have trade along this coast for centuries. The Ilha of Mozambiqu is a fascinating place to visit with much to offer tourists interested in learning about the history and culture of our country.

Tourists traveling to the interior of the country will be enthralled by the beauty of Lago Niassa, the vast lake which boards Tanzania and Malawi. This is one of the wildest places in Mozambique and is not for the fainthearted, however the rewards are great for those who persevere with the journey and here you will find beautiful, undeveloped countryside with the true feel of Africa. And, of course, no journey to the interior.

Last, but not least, are the the sandy beaches of Pemba and the remote Quirimbas Archipelago. The many small Islands in this area are true treasures isle, with their wealth of marine life and unspoilt beaches. There are a few stunning new resorts in this Arquipelago were you will find the perfect beach.

Doted along the shoreline are the silhouettes of the dhows, which have been fishing along this coast for centuries. This peaceful way of life creates an atmosphere of calm relaxation for the weary traveler.

So, whether you'd like an adventure holiday or just prefer to relax and get away from it all, it's all waiting here for you in Mozambique - the land of smiles
