

New York University's Africa House, an inter-disciplinary institute devoted to the study of Africa, and ATA partner on a number of initiatives, such as ATA's annual Presidential Forum on Tourism and special educational and networking events. Africa House and ATA launched a joint research project together in the fall of 2009.