

African Union Commission (AUC), an intergovernmental organization representing the African states, and ATA signed a memorandum of understanding in May 2010 on joining efforts to promote tourism and development across Africa.