

Global Travel and Tourism Partnership (GTTP), was established in 1996 to stimulate interest on the part of young people in participating in the industry on all levels. The GTTP works with government education and tourism ministries to provide school students academic study coupled with practical work experience in the Travel and Tourism Industry. The GTTP is a program of Global Initiatives, Inc., a not-for-profit organization based in West Chester, Pennsylvania, USA.